

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY
WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

18 March 1952

Dear General Smith:

Having in mind our conversations of last spring when you asked me to come down here as Assistant Director (Personnel), with very real regret, I submit herewith my resignation to take effect on 15 April 1952.

It has been a great privilege to serve under your leadership and to participate in the vital work of this Agency. I shall be eternally grateful to you for making it possible.

With best wishes, I am,

STAT

Sincerely yours,

F. TRUBEE DAVISON

General Walter Bedell Smith
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

STAT

Assistant Director/Personnel

PERSONAL

General Walter Bedell Smith
Director, Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.